Our Subscribers and advertising Patrons, are informed very respectfully, that we should be extremely glad if they would put it in our power to collect at least enough funds to procure ink and paper.—We shall call upon our Marshall County friends next week. If we are successful we have it in contemplation to enlarge our paper.

OUR REPRESENTATIVES.

In the State Legislature from this County, have resigned their seats in that body, Major Mull taking the lead,—he addressed his fellow-citizens on Saturday last, in a clever speech giving his reasons why he resigned his seat.

A meeting of the Whigs of this County was held in the Court House on Saturday last, recommending a general meeting, on Saturday 28th inst. for the purpose of nominating four candidates to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of our late Representatives, in the State Legislature.

VERY EXPEDITIOUS INDEED.

We return thanks to our worthy Senator in Congress, Hon. John Henderson, for valuable Public documents just received.—Franked and mailed, no doubt from Washington, in the early part of last Summer.—We wonder now how Mr. Postmaster Niles feels not withholding all his suppression of Whig documents, knowing that he will be Kicked from the office that he has so wantonly dishonored.—A convicted felon would hardly exchange situations with him, or Kendall either.

A MAMMOTH POTATOE.

Our fellow citizen Dr. Campbell has sent us a Potatoe from the Plantation of Col. Miles Carey of DeSoto County Mi. six and a half pounds, and measuring 17 inches in circumference one way and 29 the other,—come Mr. Pic of the crescent City what will "ye gie us for our Tater."

PENNSYLVANIA.

Extract of a letter to a gentleman in this city dated,

"PHILADELPHIA, 8 p. m. Nov. 5.

"Dear Friend,—

After many and quite contradictory rumors in regard to the election in this state, I am enabled to give you the result of the vote.—There were near 300,000 votes polled in the state, and Harrison's majority is 512; perhaps as close a contest in proportion to the number polled, was never known before. I give you all the returns from the surrounding States that have been correctly obtained, which will be found below; Harrison's majority in

Maryland,	4,426 votes
New Jersey,	2,000
Connecticut,	6,000

It will be seen by an extract taken from the Cincinnati Gazette, and copied from the Globe at Washington, that the defeated leaders of the Locofoco party are willing to create a revolution, with the vain hope of continuing Van Buren in power.—After resorting to forgery, slander, and worse than all attempting to create the belief that survive insurrections are induced by the whigs, they now resort to revolutionary means to destroy the government and to defeat the will of the people. It that miserable wretch Amos Kendall, and Francis P. Blair, with Van Buren at their head, do not meet with the fate of having themselves thrown head and heels to the bottom of the Potomac River, it will not be because they do not deserve it.—Martin Van Buren has degraded himself beneath the dignity of a private Gentleman, by his countenance and association with such desperate scoundrels as Amos Kendall.

From the Cincinnati Gazette.

MORE "LAST CARDS"—BEWARE!

We have seen letters from respectable sources in different quarters of the Union, which indicate that although the spoils (for we cannot use a term more descriptive of the leaders of the Van Buren party) shall be defeated in the election of electors, which every man of common sense now sees they will be, they still have A PLAN ON FOOT TO DEFEAT THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE AND CONTINUE VAN BUREN IN POWER! Startle! you may, reader! but it is even so! The scheme is two fold: first, to destroy General Harrison's life by violence, or by more subtle means, before the vote in the Electoral Colleges, and disseminate the information, either to invade and distract the votes of the electors, in such way as to prevent any one from getting a majority of the electoral votes, and thus to throw the choice into the present House of Representatives, and to rely upon the majority that did violence to the sovereign State of New Jersey, to elect Mr. Van Buren, "maugre lamentations here or elsewhere!" The second is, to resort to FORGERY and PERJURY, to induce the electors TO BELIEVE GEN. HARRISON DEAD, and in that way to produce the same result! Monstrous as this scheme seems, our readers are assured that we have seen evidence of its existence. BUT IT WILL BE FRUITLESS.—General Harrison is forewarned and forearmed. That will defeat the first branch of the scheme. The electors will not, they cannot, be induced by any artifice of the enemy, to cast votes intended for Gen. Harrison for any other person—and thus fall into the snare of Locofocoism! And we say, without any hesitation, that THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WILL NEVER SUBMIT TO ANY SUCH USURPATION!

We have no time nor disposition to enlarge on this subject; and will now say no more than to call the attention of the reader to the following incendiary paragraph, put forth in a late number of the Globe as a feeler to prepare the party for some desperate acts. LET THE PEOPLE SEE TO IT!

"What are to be the consequences of an election, contaminated, in many of the States, by infamous frauds, which can and will be proved? Will the people submit to such an election! Suppose it should be proved that enough of the electoral votes were controlled by fraud to defeat the election, will the people submit, or will they assemble in their respective States, and DECLARE THE ELECTION FRAUDULENT AND VOID?"

ALABAMA ELECTION.

Ten Counties from this State show a majority for Martin Van Buren, of 6273—Viz:

Madison	1413

Lauderdale	318
Morgan	446
Limestone	444
Tuscaloosa		350
	6628
	350
	6273

Showing a Whig gain of about 800 votes over the State elections—no doubt however, but Alabama will cast her Vote for the present Administration.

Locofoco majority in Philips county 9.

Since the above was in type we have received the following additional returns;

	Harrison	V. B.
Montgomery	360
Perry	160
Morengo	300
Greene	576
Sumpter	150
Bibb	300
Pickens	283
Jefferson	200

Reducing the administration majority to 4150.

The late victory in Marshall has filled the head of every little aspirant in the County with hopes of popping into some office or other. It looks so disgusting to see men taking advantage of propitious times, and sliding themselves into office that they are no more qualified to fill than an Arab.

Whenever we see men canvassing to prevent an enlightened people from assembling to nominate their own candidates, we invariably think they are conscious that they have neither personal popularity nor, qualification for office.—and wish to take advantage of party ascendancy to gather the honor

The time has arrived when the Country require some other qualification in a Representative than the lone one of having voted for General Harrison, or yelling, "huzza for Tip & Ty."

HARRISON'S majority in the State 12,475.

The story of the Presidential Election in the North West, as far as heard from, may be briefly told as follows:

OHIO, Harrison maj. 23,000.
KENTUCKY, 20,000.
INDIANA, 13,000

The official returns will be published, when complete. Nashville Whig.

GEORGIA.

ELECTION FOR PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT—BALDWIN COUNTY.

Twelve hundred and sixty four votes were polled in this county yesterday. The managers finished counting out the votes this morning, and it is with pleasure we present to our readers the following as the result:

G. R. Gilmer	731	J. Anderson 530
D. L. Clinch	731	J. Bates 530
J. W. Campbell	731	S. Beall 533
John Crawford	730	W. B. Bullock 533

E. Wimberly	731	T. Woolen 531

GEORGIA. —Complete returns from this State give Harrison a majority of 4690
VIRGINIA. Returns from 88 counties give Harrison a majority of 874.
LOUISIANA. In 25 Parishes Harrison's majority 2901.

From the Memphis Enquirer.

NEW JERSEY.—Returns already received, give certain assurance that New Jersey has vindicated the integrity of her "Broad Sea" by casting 2000 majority against the administration, and in favor of Harrison and Tyler.

CONNECTICUT.—The Harrison ticket has prevailed in this State by a majority of 6,306.

RHODE ISLAND.—Whig majority in all the towns but two, 1976.

MAINE.—The returns as far as received, show a decided whig gain over the October elections. Should they continue to come in as favorably as they have commenced, the state will undoubtedly cast its vote for Harrison and Tyler by a handsome majority.

NEW YORK.—A slip from the Cincinnati Republican of the 10th, says—

"New York—thus far a Whig gain of 3,595 on the vote of 1838, in seven western counties, and a gain for Van Buren of 2,124 in seven North River counties. New York city, 42,000 votes polled: Van Buren majority 1,110. Whig gain since April 511."

We see no reason to distrust the calculations of triumphant success which have been made by our friends in the Empire State.

PENNSYLVANIA.—We sincerely desire to give our readers the simple truth as regards the result in the state, but we find it impossible to arrive at it with certainty. One thing is clear the vote has been an exceedingly close one. Both parties claim the victory.

MICHIGAN.—The Cincinnati Gazette of the 10th says—"We have returns from several counties, showing results nearly the same as in the Governor's election last fall, when the Whigs succeeded. They now claim that State by a majority of about 1500."

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Has gone for Van Buren by about 2,500 or 3,000. Serious fears were felt before the election by our Northern friends, that she would turn round to Harrison. She "goes it for locofocoism."

MISSOURI.—Ditto.

ILLINOIS.—The report published on Friday, that this state had gone for Harrison, lacks confirmation. The St. Louis papers speak of it as doubtful, though they believe the whigs have carried it.

GEORGIA.—Nett whig gain in 4 northern counties (Chatooga, Floyd, Dade and Walker) over the State elections, 63 votes. Reported gain in Muscogee county 400. There can scarcely be a doubt but that Georgia will make Virginia ashamed of herself.

ARKANSAS.—Given up to the dutch.

There Will be a two days meeting in the Methodist Episcopal Church in this place on Saturday and Sunday 21st & 22nd Inst. BISHOP ANDREW will be in attendance

THE NATURALIZATION FRAUDS IN PHILADELPHIA.

—W. copy the following from the Philadelphia North American Extra. The detection of the stupendous frauds of the Locofocos of that city must have had the effect to reduce their vote of the 30th considerably below that of the 13th ult:

OFFICE OF THE NORTH AMERICAN.
Philadelphia Oct. 28, 1840.

THE NATURALIZATION FRAUDS.

In the Court of Quarter Sessions, held this morning, the matter of the alleged frauds in the naturalization docket was called up, and the opinion of the Court delivered by Judge King, President.

Judge King said, that upon examination of the docket, and the oral evidence produced before them, the Court were satisfied that the "declarations of intentions," the legality of which had been called in question, had been fraudulently interpolated, and that the name of the recording clerk, in every instance in which it appeared, had been forged. The declarations, so interpolated, were by order of the Court vacated.

The naturalization frauds have thus been brought before a judicial tribunal, and the judgement of the bench pronounced. Here is something tangible.—The whigs have instituted no secret court nor employed desperadoes to give testimony. The public records are produced—they are brought into open court, and are found to show interpolation and forgery. What are the people to think of these things? While the desperate partisans of the Administration are raising the cry of fraud, and perjury themselves to give strength to their bold charges, the books of a public office are brought out—books in the possession of officers of that very party—and the clear evidence of dreadful guilt stares them in the face! A more alarming development has never been made in this country. What will be the end?

A DREAM.

"Dreams are toys, yet for once—yes, superstitiously!—I will be squared by this."

Methought I saw on a great race track, six and twenty poles named after the States respectively; two nags, KINDERHOOK and OLD TIP, came to the polls, Buchanan, Wall and Hubbard, old federal leaders, in attendance, as timers, on the part of the office holders—Kinderhook having won one heat was entitled to the track, and as the drum was tapped, I heard the voice of a Wise man cry aloud, "A barrel of Hard Cider on the old grey." Away they went like shot of cannon, Old Tip in the lead as they passed the boundaries of the Old Dominion.—Coming to South Carolina, Kinderhook had well nigh bolted "from his property," at shouts of encouragement from McDuffie, Pickens, and a knot of Nullifiers; but John "Cataline" refreshed him with a bottle of eau de cologne—and whispering in his ear, "remember the specie clause."—for a moment he gained the lead.—It was but a convulsive effort.—According to the Raleigh Register, Old Tip shot ahead again in N. Carolina.—In Georgia, at the sound of Berrien's voice, he let out another link; and as he passed through Louisiana and Balile Peyton cried out, "Down with the Spoilers my old cock," old Eclipse never answered better to the s ur—Then in Mississippi there stood Prentiss, with the eloquent flash of his eye, to give new animation to the old horse.—But when he stopped in Tennessee to breathe "a spell," and Foster scrap'd him down, and Bell poured down a bottle of hard cider, the rider nor all creation could not hold him. Ah! girls, but when he got Old Kentucky, and Clay and Crittenden and Graves shouted as he passed "Old Tippecanoe forever," the way he made the earth quake was a caution. That impetus sent him like a thunderbolt through Ohio (where Kinderhook bolted) and the Key Stone State.—Sergeant held his breath with wonder!—and as he lead, out of sight ahead, through the Empire State Tallmadge had hardly time to ask, "Where's Kinderhook?" Away he flew, like a swallow, over the green mountains of Vermont into Isaac Hills State; there Kinderhook seemed to gain a little—but it was no go! The way Old Tip shook him off as they swung round the Northern turn into the Old Bay State, as Webster waved his beaver and shouted, "Log Cabin forever," was past all belief—from that moment his speed was swifter than the arrow's flight, until he reached the White House, when Kinderhook was no where! It is said that, as he was seen next day with his tail hanging, as he passed through Princeton he was observed to have the heavens. In Delaware, he had scarcely strength to shy at the "hen and blue chickens"—there he "let down," and in Maryland he fell and died, before he got sight of the winning post; and was buried near the distance pole for a mile race, on Kendall's track.

Here lies the bones of Kinderhook, By all his sun-shine friends forsook; Of steadfast ones, he ne'er had many, For: when was he true friend to any? By arts most foul he won one heat— But lacking bottom to repeat, The next was beaten by Old Tip, Without the touch of spur or whip. His place was "no where" shame to tell; As soon as press'd, he hack'd and fell. Some say he fell by fault of rider, Who, for champagne, mistook hard cider; Others of death found cause remote, In the report that Joel wrote.
